LOPE-C 2011 – Expansion necessitates change of location

Stuttgart, Frankfurt, 26 May 2011: Due to an increased demand for exhibition space, LOPE-C (Large-area, Organic and Printed Electronics Convention) is moving from the Forum into Hall 5.1 and the Conference Centre at the Messe Frankfurt Exhibition Grounds. The current figure for booked space stands at 1,500 sqm and this is up by about 37% on last year's final total (1,100 sqm). The demand for exhibition booths continues and the relocation means that all requests for space can now be accommodated.

The new location means that the Exhibitor Forum will be in the exhibiting area. This will provide additional interest for visitors to the event, with companies showcasing their latest developments and taking questions from the trade audience.
